KEYNOTE SPEAKER: DORINDA BORDLEE, Esq.

Dorinda is the Vice-President and Senior Counsel of the Bioethics Defense Fund, a bioethics law and policy organization that advocates for human rights. Dorinda's expertise is in the public policy realm, having drafted legislation and user friendly education pieces on issues including abortion and its impact on women's health, healthcare rights of conscience, human cloning, destructive human embryo research, and end-of-life issues such as physician-assisted suicide and healthcare rationing.

KATHY ALLEN, State Director, Black Advocates for Life

Kathy is the project director for Louisiana Black Advocates for Life; an initiative of Louisiana Right to Life designed to both increase the meaningful participation of the Black community in prolife advocacy, and also decrease the rate of abortion among Black women. As the parent of a child with Down syndrome, Kathy understands well that every life is precious.

2015 Honorees: Ross and Carolyn McCalip

The McCalips have been selected to receive this year's Joan Dowd Lifetime Achievement Award for their decades of service to the protection of unborn children in our community.
