Interfaith Candlelight Prayer Service-7:00 pm Monday, September 23

Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church
445 Marquette Avenue, Baton Rouge

Please join us for our third annual interdenominational prayer service honoring the start of 40 Days for Life in our community that begins on September 25th in front of Delta abortion facility. Speakers include: Bishop Robert W. Muench, Catholic Diocese of Baton Rouge and Rev. Cleo Milano, Pastor of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church. Jason Romero and Kathleen Lee will lead us in song.

Sarah Jones Zagorski has personal proximity with abortion and will share her story of survival, hope and healing. Sarah was adopted at age nine by a loving family dedicated to the pro-life movement after many years in the Louisiana Foster Care system. She is the Communications and National Life and Leadership Director for Louisiana Right to Life. She and her husband David reside in Covington and are members of Journey Fellowship Church.

Fr. Matthew McCaughey is the Parochial Vicar at St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Baton Rouge. The youngest of five children, Father McCaughey attended St. Thomas More Elementary School, Baton Rouge High School and LSU. He entered seminary after completing a chemical engineering degree and is now in his second year of full-time ministry. Fr. Matthew has participated in 40 Days for Life during his different parish assignments.

Carmen Davis Damen is a speaker for “Silent No More,” a group that shares testimony about the impact of abortion. Carmen is a Site Coordinator for 40 Days for Life, a team member of Rachel’s Vineyard Retreat, a member of Most Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church and several prayer groups. She is married to Randy Damen, another 40 Days for Life Coordinator, and is the mom of an adult daughter.
