Job Opening: Youth Programs Director
Location: New Orleans Office
(Opening As Of October 10, 2024)

Summary:

Louisiana Right to Life, one of the nation's premier pro-life state organizations, is looking for an energetic, passionate, and effective person to join its team as Youth Programs Director based in the New Orleans office.

The New Orleans-based Youth Programs Director of the Louisiana Right to Life Educational Committee Inc. is responsible, under the direction of the Director of Education, Executive Director, and the Board of Directors of the organization, to spearhead the conceptualization, organization, and execution of all youth-oriented programs of the organization, and any other activities so decided by the organization. The Youth Programs Director will collaborate with LARTL Staff, including the other Youth Programs Director headquartered in Lafayette

Qualities Needed:

- Experience and Knowledge Recommended: Prior experience in following activities is recommended:
 - Pro-Life activities and a solid foundation of pro-life principles
 - Students for Life experience on high school and/or college campuses
 - Youth Ministry
- Self-Starter: The employee would be required to be self-driven to set and reach goals without constant monitoring.
- Organized and Responsible
- Reliable: Employee will be working with young people, and therefore, he/she will have to be very trustworthy and reliable. In addition, because the employee will be representing the organization often without the Executive Director or other staff or board member, he/she must present an appropriate image of the organization.
- A passion for the pro-life cause and youth education
- Ability to work with many different groups of people, including of various religious denominations.
